PESMAZOGOLOU 5
PANEPISTIMIO ATHENS

EVERY SATURDAY
12.00PM - 1.30PM

A unique, emotional, unforgettable journey in the center of Athens, birthplace of theatre

This is not a show. Not a reenactment. Not a guided tour.
It's a living ritual, in the underground birthplace of modern Greek theatre. Where ancient drama through Euripides'
Medea becomes not just a story but your story.

Medea Reloaded In Athens

Step inside the birthplace of modern Greek theatre. This is not a performance. It's an experience of shared transformation

Every Saturday, inside the legendary underground venue of the famous Karolos Koun Greek Art Theatre, for the first time a small group of international visitors takes part in something rare.

An immersive, English-speaking journey into Euripides' Medea. Through music, narration, physical theatre, and collective activation, guests don't just watch a myth — they embody it.

You'll step on stage. Move. Listen. Respond.
Just like a member of the ancient drama's Chorus

And through this living ritual, you'll explore the eternal questions that Medea still asks:

What is betrayal? What is power?
What does it mean to be heard?

This experience is not a play, not a tour, and definitely not passive. It's a curated artistic event designed for those seeking depth, connection, and authenticity.

Whether you love theatre, mythology, or just want to experience something original and truly Greek — this is your invitation.

No prior knowledge needed. Just presence.
